Refund Policy Explained

Refunds depend on multiple factors:

✓ Eligible Refund Situations 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719

- Flight canceled by airline
- Major schedule changes
- Covered reasons under travel insurance

In many cases, trip cancellation insurance may reimburse prepaid, non-refundable expenses 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719 like flights or hotels if you cancel for covered reasons such as illness or severe weather .

✗ Non-Refundable Situations

- Change of plans
 - Personal reasons not covered by insurance
 - Missed flights (in most cases) 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719

Chase Travel Insurance & Protection

Many Chase credit cards offer built-in travel protections:

Trip Cancellation Insurance 📞 ||+1→888→483→9719

- Covers unexpected events (illness, weather, emergencies)
- May reimburse non-refundable costs

Trip Interruption Insurance

- Covers trips cut short due to emergencies
- Includes reimbursement for unused bookings

Trip Delay Reimbursement

- Covers expenses like meals, hotels during delays

 Important:

Chase does not automatically include “Cancel For Any Reason” insurance,

 ||+1→888→483→9719 but you may purchase it separately .

What Happens If the Airline Cancels Your Flight?

If your airline cancels your flight:

- You’re usually eligible for a full refund or rebooking  ||+1→888→483→9719
 - Refunds apply even for non-refundable tickets in many cases
 - U.S. regulations require refunds for canceled flights if you choose not to travel

Can You Cancel Flights Booked with Points?

Yes. If you used Chase Ultimate Rewards points:

- Refunds are typically returned to your points balance
 - Timing depends on airline and cancellation type

Fees for Canceling Chase Travel Flights ||+1→888→483→9719

Fees may include:

- Airline cancellation fees
- Fare difference for rebooking
- Service fees (in some cases)
